Art Unit: 3683

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed on 8/30/2004.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35

U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Terao et al.

Note the previous discussion of Terao et al. in paragraph 2 of the paper mailed on 4/30/2004.

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Terao et al. in view of Davis et al.

Re- claims 4-6, the claimed invention differs from Terao et al. only in the type of magnet actuator and the type of sensor.

Davis teaches the use of a linear magnetic actuator and pressure sensors for controlling an isolator.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have utilized a linear motor and pressure sensors in Terao et al in view of the teaching of Davis et al.

Art Unit: 3683

as a mere substitute of known equivalents dependent on the associated environment or intended use of the actuator.

6. Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 8/30/2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Contrary to Applicant's contention, the actuator of Terao et al is an isolator to the broad degree claimed. As to bandwidth, this feature is not claimed and thus the article is deemed moot.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
